Words from Their Excellencies

Greetings unto the people of Dragon Dormant,

With the full weight of winter upon us we look to lighter celebrations this coming Feb 9th at King and Queen's Rapier Championship. We wish to take a moment to express our support to all of our fencers both on and off the Rapier field. This is a time to display your prowess and chivalric behaviour and We are confidence that you will shine.

We also look to every member of the populace to help out in any way they can. This is a major East Kingdom event and takes many people for it to be successful. Your assistance is both necessary and appreciated. We are personally asking that everyone make an effort to assist in the set up, dish washing and tear down of the hall. These tasks are often left to a few weary souls. They need your help and many hands make light work.

Finally We end with encouragement for you all to speak to our guests and make them feel welcome. For many traveller this will be their ever trip to the shores of Dragon Dormant. The groups of Tir Mara are well known for their warm hospitality. Introduce yourself to others, speak to those you do not know, point out other members of Tir Mara. You are a beloved people and Our greatest wish is for others to know you as We do.

In Service,
Angus and Tadea
Baron and Baroness of L'Ile du Dragon Dormant

Words from the Seneschal

Unto the Populous does John Radburne, Baronial Seneschal send his hearty greetings. Long life, Prosperity, and Health to us all.

Kings and Queens Rapier Championship is upon us. I have watched with pride as the fencers of the barony have sharpened their steel and their skills in preparation for combat against the best fencers in the kingdom. This preparation will serve them well for the summer of steel that approaches shortly thereafter.

Have you prepared yourself for the summer events to come? Now is the time! For those who are new the Barony, or have never attended an event with us, if there was ever an event I would label as not to be missed, it would be this one.

This is the best time to be a scadian. There are events every weekend that are just a few hours away, chock full of fun activities and parties that last all night. If you love to learn, and if you love to carouse, this is your time.

Our Barony has some challenges ahead, challenges we will meet with a committed Curia. We are reorganizing for the moment, but we will be asking for your help once we have finished that reorganization. Our plan is centered around fun and community involvement.

See you soon,

John Radburne, IDD Seneschal

King's and Queen's Rapier Championship

❧ February 9th, 2013 ❧

It has been many years since the Eastern Masters of Defence travelled north to test their courage and endurance in the cold reaches of the north. Their Majesties Edward and Thyra, along with Don Donovan Shinnock and Baron Jean-Paul Ducasse, challenge the Eastern Fencing Populous to a tourney of skill and courtesy to choose the next Champions of Defence of the East.

The members of l'Ile Du Dragon Dormant will showcase their skills as they vie for the title of Baronial Champion of Arts and Sciences.

Our haven is warm with firelight and our Feast-o-crat is preparing a marvelous feast and all performers are welcome. Our site is dry, but alcohol may be purchased on site.
